

Justice John Blair

The Annotated Bobblehead

Like his Court colleagues John Jay and James Wilson, he is holding the second volume of Alexander Dallas's reports. It contains his most famous opinion, the one in Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. 419 (1793).

He was one of two members of the first Supreme Court to have studied at one of the Inns of Court in London. As a student at the Middle Temple in 1755-56, he would have strolled in the Inn's renowned gardens and Fountain Court (background).

He was the first member of the Court appointed from Virginia.
