ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

SONIA SOTOMAYOR

THE ANNOTATED BOBBLEHEAD

"[C]ollege pride has not been the only source of controversy between Texas and Oklahoma regarding the Red River." Tarrant Regional Water Dist. v. Herrmann, 569 U.S. 614 (2013).

"The crucial question . . . is not whether an interest is important in the abstract; it is whether deferring review until final judgment so imperils the interest as to justify the cost of allowing immediate appeal of the entire class of relevant orders." Mohawk v. Carpenter, 558 U.S. 100 (2009).

"You tell your scouts to find a defensive catcher, a quick-footed shortstop, or a pitcher from last year's World Champion Kansas City Royals. It would be natural for your scouts to confine their search for a pitcher to last year's championship team, but to look more broadly for catchers and shortstops." Lockhart v. U.S., 136 S.Ct. 958 (2016).

"Contractors are responsible for knowing the size of the pie, not how the agency elects to slice it." Salazar v. Ramah Navajo Chapter, 567 U.S. 182 (2012).

"[T]he Court today turns aside petitioners' plea that they at least be allowed a stay of execution while they seek to prove midazolam's inadequacy. ... As a result, it leaves petitioners exposed to what may well be the chemical equivalent of being burned at the stake." Glossip v. Gross, 576 U.S. 863 (2015) (Sotomayor, J., dissenting).

"... the apples-to-oranges comparison of the conduct proscribed under customary international law and the forms of liability available under domestic law." Jesner v. Arab Bank, PLC, 138 S.Ct. 1386 (2018) (Sotomayor, J., dissenting).

"In the case of a design for a single-component product, such as a dinner plate, the product is the 'article of manufacture' to which the design has been applied. In the case of a design for a multicomponent product, such as a kitchen oven, identifying the 'article of manufacture' . . . is a more difficult task." Samsung v. Apple, 137 S.Ct. 429 (2016).

"Under that rubric, I agree with Justice Alito that, at the very least, 'longer term GPS monitoring in investigations of most offenses impinges on expectations of privacy."

U.S. v. Jones, 565 U.S. 400 (2012) (Sotomayor, J., concurring) (see also the Scialabba case on the Justice Alito bobblehead).

"At best, the majority offers a half-a-loaf policy rationale that cannot justify departing from the best reading of the statute's text." Mont v. U.S., 139 S.Ct. 1826, (2019) (Sotomayor, J., dissenting); see also 137 S.Ct. 1144 (2017) (Sotomayor, J., concurring) ("This quarter-loaf outcome is worse than none.").

Why a map background here (and on the box)? "Professors have long asked law students to interpret a hypothetical ordinance that prohibits bringing 'a vehicle into the park.' The debate usually centers on what counts as a 'vehicle.' Is a moped forbidden? How about a baby stroller? In this case, we can all agree that John Sturgeon's hovercraft is a vehicle. But now we ask whether he has brought it 'into the park' — and, if not, how a river's designation as 'outside the park' will affect future attempts to regulate there." Sturgeon v. Frost, 139 S.Ct. 1066 (2019) (Sotomayor, J., concurring) (note omitted).
