

AN ABSORBING CASEBOOK

Anonymous

Reviewing

KATHLEEN M. SULLIVAN AND GERALD GUNTHER,
CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, SIXTEENTH EDITION
(Foundation Press 2007)

THE PAGES OF THE CASEBOOK drain highlighters, not necessarily because there is a lot to highlight, but more because the paper is super absorbent.

Anonymous is truly anonymous because at the University of Minnesota Law School, students' course evaluation forms are truly anonymous. The review published above is drawn from one of those forms, courtesy of Dale Carpenter, Earl R. Larson Professor of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Law. See Student Evaluation of the Year, Volokh Conspiracy, volokh.com, Jan. 27, 2011.