

GREEN BAG SUBSCRIPTION INNOVATIONS!

This means a price hike, of course, but at least there is more to it than just that. Starting now – at 8:01 a.m. Eastern Time on Wednesday, November 25, 2015 – the Green Bag offers two kinds of subscriptions:

1. A “basic” Green Bag subscription: We continue to offer a subscription to our flagship journal, with a couple of changes – an almanac and the price. The Green Bag Almanac & Reader – formerly available only as a gift, distributed with our usual arbitrary capriciousness – is included in this subscription. The price per year (for four issues of the Bag and one of the Almanac & Reader) is $55 for domestic (U.S.) subscribers and $80 for international (outside the U.S.) subscribers. We have grandparented-in current subscribers for the duration of their currently paid-up subscriptions.

2. An “extravagant” Green Bag subscription: We also offer what amounts to an accessorized version of the basic subscription. With the “extravagant” subscription you get the basics (annually, four issues of the Green Bag and one Almanac & Reader), plus some extra things (four per year, at intervals unlikely to be regular) that strike us as worth sharing. What makes our extravagant subscription especially intriguing is that we will not tell you in advance what those extra things are. What makes it especially appealing, at least for now, is that the thrills are cheap – a mere $20 premium over the basic subscription. Annual rates are $75 for domestic subscribers and $100 for international subscribers. Current subscribers can upgrade for the duration of their current paid-up subscriptions by sending the Green Bag $20 for each paid-up year. If you do not know how currently paid-up you are, email us and we will tell you. N.B.: Bobbleheads of Supreme Court Justices will not be among the extravagances, nor will they be for sale by the Green Bag in any other way. We will continue to make them, and they will remain gifts, developed and distributed occasionally, arbitrarily, and capriciously. (We will continue to give away other things from time to time as well.)

All renewals and new subscriptions (including any marked by the U.S. Postal Service or received by us after the “starting now” time above) are at the new rates.

That is all. We hope you like what we have done and what we will do.

To subscribe or renew, please go to www.greenbag.org and click on the “Subscribe or Renew” button. Please do.