

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

George Rutherglen (Fisher II, p. 19): I would like to thank Ann Woolhandler, Aditya Bamzai, and Douglas Laycock for comments on this article and Betsey Hedges for her timely and thorough work as a research assistant.

CREDITS

All items published with permission of the copyright holder, if any.

- Page 5: Elliot Richardson, United States Secretary of Defense, testifying before the Senate Judiciary Committee during his nomination hearing for Attorney General (1967). Library of Cong., Prints & Photographs Div., repro. no. LCDIGds08054.
- Page 41: Statue of Liberty, erected on Bedloe's Island, in New York Harbor (1885). Library of Cong., Prints & Photographs Div., repro. no. LC-USZC4-1009.
- Pages 51-80: The Negro Motorist Green Book (1938). New York Public Library, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, Jean Blackwell Hutson Research and Reference Division, Digital Public Library of America, digitalcollections.nypl.org/items/f56e0d60-847a-0132-8e19-58d385a7bbd0.
- Pages 81: Old and new Essex County courthouses, Federal Street, Salem, Mass. (ca. 1910). Library of Cong., Prints & Photographs Div., repro. no. LC-DIG-det-4a19770.