

BEYOND EXTRAVAGANCE

We've mapped another Sherlock Holmes story: The Adventure of the Musgrave Ritual. This time around we are experimenting with a different approach to distribution. Instead of pushing yet another dose of Victorian detective fiction onto our readers, we are inviting our readers to pull from us. So, if you subscribe to the Green Bag and you want a copy of this new map, send us an email (editors@greenbag.org) saying so, and we will drop one in the mail to you, if we still have any to spare. (We did not make many, so don't procrastinate.) If you don't want one, do nothing, and nothing will happen.
