

SUPREME COD

Unknown

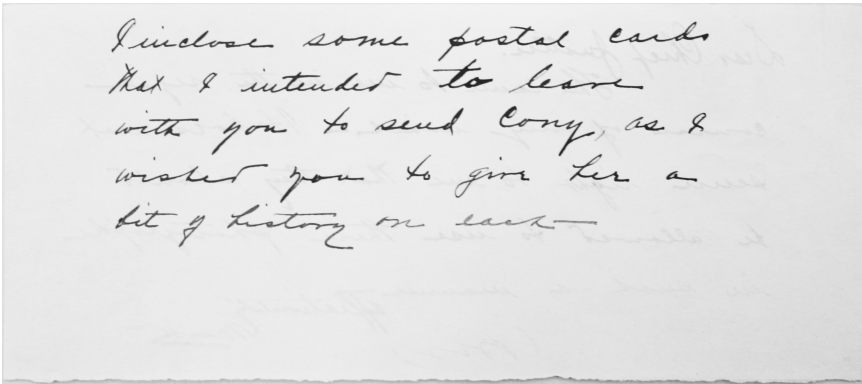

While we are on the subject of the Supreme Court and good health (a condition we wish for all the Justices), here is another small dose.

— The Editors

Dear Chief Justice:
This came to me in the regular course of my mail. - It does not seem right to me that they should be allowed to use these photographs in such a manner.
affectionately
(over) Mark

The note written by the unknown author, and the accompanying advertisement for cod liver extract, are in the Melville Weston Fuller Papers, Library of Congress, Manuscript Division, Box 10.

Unknown

I inclose some postal cards
that I intended to leave with you to send Corry, as I wished you to give her a bit of history on each

Transcription:

Dear Chief Justice:

This [the cod liver extract advertisement on the next page] came to me in the regular course of my mail. It does not seem right to me that they should be allowed to use these photographs in such a manner.

Affectionately,
[Mark? But if so, Mark who?]

(over)

I inclose some postal cards [not present] that I intended to leave with you to send [Corry?], as I wished you to give her a bit of history on each.

MELVILLE W. FULLER
1863 —

JOHN JAY
1789-1795

JOHN RUTLEDGE
1725-1795

OLIVER ELLSWORTH
1796-1800

JOHN MARSHALL
1801-1835

ROGER B. TANNEY
1836-1856

SALMON D. CHASE
1824-1874

HUGHES & WATTE

Chief Justices of the U.S. Supreme Court

EMINENT AMONG THE JUSTICES OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION
Are the appreciation of merit and the extensive use of

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER EXTRACT
As an unexcelled Tonic, Vitalizer, Reconstructive and Tissue Builder and

WAMPOLE'S CREO-TERPIN COMPOUND
In congested or inflammatory conditions of the respiratory tract

HENRY K. WAMPOLE & COMPANY, INC.
Manufacturing Pharmacists
PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.