AN ENTERTAINING JOURNAL OF LAW

ESTABLISHED 1889 • RE-ESTABLISHED 1997

. . . I find myself asking the same old questions: what is humor, how does it differ from wit, and why will people confess more readily to almost any other fault than a lack of it? Perhaps they do so because, as I have observed before, it is, after courage, the most valuable possession we can have. And yet, though many will sometimes admit, and sometimes wrongly, that they lack courage, I have still to meet a man or woman who will confess to a lack of humor.

SUBSCRIPTIONS. Subscribe at www.greenbag.org or use the form in this issue. Claims must be filed at subscriptions@greenbag.org by 2/1/21. When you buy a Green Bag subscription, that is all you are buying – one copy of each issue of the journal and the Almanac & Reader (plus, for “extravagant” subscribers, four surprises per year) for the duration of your paid order. Everything else we make is a gift (e.g., a bobblehead Justice) that may or may not be given to some subscribers and other people, or something sold separately (e.g., the Baker Street Almanac), or something else (e.g., a Lunchtime Law Quiz prize).

EDITORIAL POLICY. We publish authors’ ideas in their own words. We fix typos and mistakes and make minor changes to produce an attractive, grammatical, readable journal.

AUTHOR NOTES. Gratitude to RAs is nice. Colleagues who make major contributions should share the byline. Recognize those who help in small ways with something printed by Hallmark, not the Bag.

SUBMISSIONS. Please send them to editors@greenbag.org. We welcome anything interesting, law-related, well-written, and short (no more than 5,000 words, including no more than 50 footnotes).

DEALING WITH AUTHORITY. Citations should be accurate and unobtrusive. Authors may use any form they like. We do edit to keep footnotes from looking like goulash.

WEB CITES. We are not responsible for the accuracy or persistence of cited URLs for websites. We do not guarantee that the content on any of those websites is accessible, accurate, or appropriate.
