

BOBBLEHEAD REDEMPTION

We had big bobblehead news a few months ago. We announced it on our website and via social media:

Beginning on September 21, 2022, bobbleheads can again be picked up at the reception desk of O'Melveny & Myers LLP, at 1625 Eye Street NW in Washington, DC, between the business hours of 8:00-1:00 or 2:00-5:00 ET. To be admitted to reception, you will first need to present your original bobblehead certificate to the security desk in the lobby of the building. Bobblehead quantity is limited, and we cannot guarantee that yours will be in stock.

This routine has become our new normal. It is much better than the pandemic-mandated procedure that preceded it!
