

Autumn 2002 2d Series + Volume 6 + Number 1

[A]s a Democratic Member of Congress once said, "In the Senate, you can't go to the bathroom without 60 votes."

146 Cong. Rec. s4174 (daily ed. May 18, 2000) (statement of Sen. Feingold)

After receiving the unanimous vote of his cabinet ..., Lincoln announced: "The vote has been taken. Seven noes, one aye – the ayes have it."

Meyer v. Bush, 981 F.2d 1288, 1297 n.9 (D.C. Cir. 1993) (citing Richard F. Fenno, Jr., The President's Cabinet 29 (1963))

At some point early in their clerkships, Brennan asked his clerks to name the most important rule in constitutional law. ... Brennan would reject each answer, in the end providing his own by holding up his hand with the fingers wide apart. This, he would say, is the most important rule in constitutional law.

The Green Bag 2d is published quarterly. © 2002 The Green Bag, Inc., an Ohio nonprofit. ISSN 1095-5216. "The Green Bag" and the Bog logo are our registered trademarks. Thanks to Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP; Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue; Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw; and Shea & Gardner.

SUBSCRIPTIONS. One year (four issues) costs $35. Visit www.greenbag.org to subscribe by credit card, or use the form on our back cover. For back-issues, call (800) 828-7571. Claims must be filed with subscriptions@greenbag.org within three months of the publication date (11/1/02).

EDITORIAL POLICY. We publish authors' ideas in their own words. We fix typos and other mistakes, and make minor changes to adjust to Green Bag format. Additional suggestions are just that.

AUTHOR NOTES. Gratitude to research assistants is nice. Colleagues who make major contributions should share the byline; those who help in small ways should be recognized in something printed by Hallmark, not the Green Bag.

Submissions. We welcome anything that is short, clear, interesting, and law-related. For those who prefer rules to standards, that means no more than 5,000 words and 0 to 50 footnotes (which count against your 5,000). We like poetry, anecdotes, cartoons, and other miscellany. Please send submissions to editors@greenbag.org. We will consider hardcopy in cases of hardship. Letters are welcome.

DEADLINES. August 1 for the Autumn issue; November 1 for Winter; February 1 for Spring; May 1 for Summer.

Dealing with Authority. Citations should be accurate and unobtrusive. Authors may use any form they like; we edit only to keep footnotes from looking like goulash.

COPYRIGHT. If a copyright notice appears in an author note, you must get permission to copy from the author. Otherwise, we hold the copyright, and you may copy such items for classroom use, if you (1) distribute copies at or below the cost of reproduction; (2) identify the author and the Green Bag; (3) affix proper copyright notice to each copy; and (4) notify us. Other copying in any medium requires advance written permission.

Exceptions. Maybe. Maybe not. Why don't you ask Mr. Ho?

Ho-Hum. "'I don't find Mr. Ho's story plausible." United States v. Ho, 94 F.3d 932, 942 (5th Cir. 1996) (Barksdale, J., dissenting) (quoting district court).
